RE: Candela Corporation v. Palomar Medical Technologies 1:08-cv-00949

Dear Judge Denlow:

We represent plaintiff Candela Corporation in the above-identified matter and submit this letter for use in today's status conference with the Court scheduled for 10:15 a.m. CST this morning.

The attached March 14, 2008 letter (Exhibit A) summarizes the results of the hearing before your Honor which took place on March 12 to compel compliance with Candela's subpoenas served on doctors Van Damm and Kovak in October 2007, as revised in December 2007. The purpose of the requested status conference was to ensure that the doctors have completed the document productions and depositions as ordered by the Court at the hearing on Candela's motion to compel.

Despite our requests over the past several weeks for both the document productions and depositions of the doctors to be completed by April 8, we have only recently received documents from the doctors on Friday of last week and last night. However, we have not received (i) confirmation that all required documents identified in the attached March 14 letter have been produced, and (ii) have been unable to obtain dates of availability for the depositions of the doctors so that we may complete their depositions as ordered by the Court. We request the Court's assistance in obtaining both items.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Cote
